Dear Mr. Kahle:

Thank you for your interest in PR Newswire. As a member services representative of the San Francisco bureau of PR Newswire, I am pleased to present the following information on our diverse services. It is a great starting point for a reference guide; however, our greatest strength is our people, so I encourage you to call me or anyone in the bureau at your convenience should you ever have any questions.

Our staff comprises the local bureau for PR Newswire. PRN is the leader in the distribution of news to the media and other third party recipients. In short, PRN provides the most effective and efficient means for getting your news to the audience you choose. It is effective because your news will be delivered electronically and simultaneously. This not only provides equal time to all destinations, but your copy is received in the manner editors and analysts generally prefer.

Our service is efficient because we can serve as a one-stop shop for your news distribution needs. You simply decide the media you wish to see your news. For example, you can send a 400-word press release to certain statewide distributions for $50 or to over 2000 media outlets nationwide for $485, and virtually every option in between. We can also tailor your releases geographically if necessary. We also are able to transmit photos electronically and store them for immediate retrieval by media outlets.

With Pronto Direct, PRN's facsimile service, we can provide simultaneous distribution to any group of recipients on your proprietary fax lists. We can digitize letterheads at no charge so the information appears to be coming directly from the company or agency. We also provide personalized cover sheets and detailed summary reports at no additional charge.

We have many other services available depending on your needs. Please let me know if I or any of my associates can provide additional information or if we can be of further assistance to you and your associates. I have enclosed Gwyn Crosson's card as she will be the Account Executive handling your account should you choose to open one with us. We look forward to working with you!

Best Regards,

Rebecca Thach
